Dear Grandpa Santa Claus,

Hello! I am a primary school student from China. My name is Xie Yu Tong.

Christmas is very popular among children in China now. Every Christmas, the shops can be seen everywhere with beautiful Christmas trees, colourful lights and the familiar music of “Jingle Bells” floating out of the shop window. Do you know? There are many children in China waiting for you to send us gifts!

Could you give me a gift? I want a lot of presents: dolls, books, a piano.....

I also want to go to many places: Beijing, Tianjin, Dalian..... Hee, hee,

I want to make poor people happy. Because of their poverty, they could not eat all day. Their clothes are in tatters and their children could not go to school.

But we can sit in the spacious and bright classroom to have a class. We can eat sweet and delicious food. Also, we can wear beautiful clothes.....

I really hope that poor people can live a happy life. Father Christmas, can you grant my wish?

Love,

Xie Yu Tong, Amy
