Dear Santa Claus,

Christmas is around the corner and you must be busy. The children all of the world are waiting for you: wearing your red jacket, a Santa hat and carrying full bags of gifts. Over the past several years, I asked you for many Christmas gifts, such as a toy bear, beautiful clothes and nice cookies etc. and you gave me all that I wanted.

This year was not the same as before because there was a virus named Covid-19 in China. This virus was very dangerous and hurt many Chinese. Therefore, I can only stay at home for protection. Even my school was closed. I can only have online class but I still study hard.

This year I behaved not that well, and I think I can be better and better in the future.

For next year, I wish that everyone can be safe and have good health. If possible, I would like to have a gift: a beautiful “ice-skating trolley case” because I want to carry the heavy shoes by myself. I think you can help me to realize it, right?

At last, I wish you a Merry Christmas and stay healthy!

Your friend,

Emily Gan
